MARTIN LUTHER KING

Of all the forms of inequality, injustice in health care is the most shocking and inhumane.

Speaking before the Second National Convention of the Medical Committee for Human Rights.
Chicago, Illinois. March 25 1966.
